"The North thinks it knows how to make corn bread, but this is mere superstition. Perhaps no bread in the world is quite so good as Southern corn bread, and perhaps no bread in the world is quite so bad as the Northern imitations of it."

"For mercy's sake, don't put any sugar in your corn bread. That's like trying to eat grits with sugar and cream.
A Yankee strays down this way and tries it once in a while, but it's a pitiful thing to see."
